Fatima Retreat House cornerstone rite slated

Archbishop Schulte will bless the cornerstone of the new Our Lady of Fatima Retreat House, under construction at 3533 E. 56th St., Indianapolis, at 2 p.m. Sunday, July 21.

CHARLES Warner, president of the Indianapolis Chamber of Commerce and vice president of the Fatima board of directors, will introduce the other board members.

The $300,000, 70-room retreat house, located on a wooded 12-acre tract, is scheduled for completion in November, according to the director, Father James D. Moriarty.

Principal speaker for the cornerstone ceremonies will be Msgr. Edward Hochbold, pastor of Holy Trinity parish, Indianapolis. The St. Cecilia Choir from St. Joan of Arc parish will sing.

To start Latin School residence

Construction will begin immediately on the first of several residence units for students at the Latin School of Indianapolis, according to an announcement of S. M. LaRosa, president of the Latin School Foundation.

The two-story, brick structure, to be erected close to the school on the near-Southside of Indianapolis, will provide accommodations for a maximum of 32 students from outside Indianapolis.

The Very Rev. Joseph D. Brokage, Latin School rector, said advance registration indicates that about 15 boys will be housed there during the first year. "It's possible that more will apply now that the residence hall will soon be a reality," he stated.

To be known as Dugan Hall, in memory of the late Archdiocesan Chancellor, Msgr. Henry Dugan, the unit will be erected on Latin School property by R. V. Wolski, Indianapolis home builder. Construction will be completed before the start of the fall school term.

STUDENTS residing in Dugan Hall will be five-day boarders.

Abp. O'Hara dies; delegate to Britain

LONDON — American-born Archbishop Gerald P. O'Hara, Delegate to Great Britain, died here at the age of 68, four days after he had been stricken with a heart attack at his residence in Wimbledon.

A native of Scranton, Pa., where he was born in May 4, 1895, the archbishop had served as Apostolic Delegate here since 1954. Previously he had been for nearly four years Papal Nuncio to Ireland.

returning home to their families on weekends. They will use the study, dining and recreation facilities of the school, thus eliminating these accommodations from the residence hall.

Mr. LaRosa disclosed that a preliminary study has been made of the immediate area surrounding the Latin School by a professional consultant to determine an orderly program of development and growth for the Archdiocesan institution.

The Foundation, a project of the Indianapolis District Council of Catholic Men, is composed of a board of laymen dedicated to providing assistance to the pre-seminary high school conducted by diocesan clergy.

According to Father Brokage, a number of out-of-town students have been attending the Latin School for several years while residing in private homes.

Pope Paul praises efforts of UN toward world peace

Secretary General received in audience

VATICAN CITY—Pope Paul VI said in receiving the Secretary-General of the United Nations that the Holy See regards the UN as the fruit of a civilization for which the Church provided the basic principles.

The Pope received U Thant in private audience (July 11) for a half hour and praised the UN for its efforts for world peace. He spoke in English.

He said that the UN "is a historical reality of too great importance to leave Us indifferent to this meeting with you." "The Holy See, which you are visiting today in Our humble person," Pope Paul continued, "holds a very high conception of that international organization. It considers it to be the fruit of a civilization to which the Catholic religion, with its driving center in the Holy See, gave the vital principles.

"It considers it an instrument of brotherhood between nations, which the Holy See has always desired and promoted, and hence a brotherhood intended to favor progress and peace among men. It considers the United Nations as the steadily developing and improving form of the balance and united life of all humanity in its historical and earthly order."

CALLING attention to the multiple and diverse ideologies of those belonging to the UN, the Pope said that "Catholic Church regards them with due attention."

He then said that the presence of so many races and states in a single organization "is a fact which the Holy See considers as corresponding to its concept of humanity, and included within the area of its spiritual mission in the world."

Pope Paul recalled that the formation of such an organization as the UN was "desired" by Pope Benedict XV, its funeral orator was "traced" by Pope Pius XII in two messages, and its importance was "underlined" and its perfect functioning encouraged by the late Pope John XXIII in the encyclical Pacem in Terris.

"We, therefore, derive consolation from your visit," he told U Thant, "and we avail ourselves of the occasion to renew the expression of Our esteem and of Our hopes for the fundamental program of the United Nations, especially in regard to eliminating of war, the assistance of developing peoples, . . . and the safeguarding of the rights and dignity of the human person."

The Pope concluded by expressing "good wishes or true prosperity of the great organization of the United Nations, and for the happy success of its activities."

AFTER His audience with the Pope, U Thant visited Cardinal Amleto Cicognani, Papal Secretary of State. In the evening of the same day he addressed the Italian Society of International Law.

Individual seen key to racial harmony

PITTSBURGH—The racial crisis must be met in terms of the individual person, Bishop John J. Wright of Pittsburgh declared at a Mass in St. Paul's cathedral during the reception, a parish of the Battle of Gettysburg.

General chairman for the parley is Leo J. McElroy of Indiana, former Grand Knight of Council 97, Knights of St. Peter Claver. Convention consultant is Father John LaBauve, S.V.D.

"In the social teaching of the Holy Catholic Church, the emphasis is squarely on the individual," he said, "not on nationality, race, class or organization. In the specific problem of so-called 'inter-racial' relations the individual is the key to the solution of both ends of the question."

NATIONAL OFFICERS who will be present include: Dr. Eugene B. Perry, Supreme Knight; Mrs. Inez V. Bowman, Supreme Lady; and Father Searey, Supreme Navigator. All are from Houston, Texas.

"The tensions will not be solved until the individual rises above the prejudices of his group and acquires personally an attitude of respect for persons; this means, on the other end, that each person must be seen as an individual, accepted on his own individual merits and judged without reference to his pigmentation or ancestry."

Local fraternal leaders are: Bennie Ray, Grand Knight of Council 97; and Mrs. Searey, Supreme Navigator. All are from Houston, Texas.

TO HELP establish a moral and therefore truly humane racial attitude is necessary, he urged on Catholics a three-fold personal program: private and public prayer; rigorous examination of conscience in matters of interracial and social justice, as rigorous as that one gives to other areas of one's moral life; and a careful study of the social teachings of the Church, pertinently presented in the encyclicals of modern popes, notably Pius XI, Pius XII and John XXIII.

Local fraternal leaders are: Bennie Ray, Grand Knight of Council 97; and Mrs. Searey, Supreme Navigator. All are from Houston, Texas.

Such a response, the Bishop added, will make it much easier for religious groups "to play their full and proper and indispensable part in meeting the crisis which President Kennedy accurately described as basically moral."

Linguistics

MONTREAL—Forty Anglican clergymen and laymen have signed up for a 25-week, October to April course in French in order to further interreligious dialogue with French-Canadian Catholics. The Rev. David Weeller, director of the Anglican Diocesan Board of Religious Education, is sponsoring the course in a French culture here. . . . If we are going to take part in dialogues on ecumenical and racial problems, we believe we must come to terms with the language."

MARIAN SHRINE AT WOODS—Sixty-five years of service by a father-son combination at St. Mary-of-the-Woods was commemorated by the Sisters of Providence with the erection of the new Marian shrine, above, on the convent grounds. The two—Joseph Bisch, Sr., and his son, Bernard Bisch—served successively as superintendents of buildings and grounds from 1893 to 1958. Erected south of the community cemetery on the southeast corner of the convent grounds, the shrine is the gift of an anonymous Terre Haute donor. The new shrine has a white stone central figure of Our Lady of Providence against a three-panel, red brick background, mounted over a limestone altar. A grandson of Joseph Bisch, Sr., Joseph L. Bisch of Terre Haute, holds the position of building and grounds superintendent now.

CATHOLIC SCHOOL CRISIS

Cincinnati Archdiocese may drop first 4 grades

CINCINNATI—Schools of the archdiocese face a financial crisis that may make it necessary to drop the first four grades, Auxiliary Bishop Paul F. Leibold has declared.

He estimated that if the archdiocese called a halt to school construction it would require the state-operated school system to undertake a $25 million building program in the area of the archdiocese and would add $16 million in operating expense to the area's taxpayers.

But for the future, he said, "we frankly foresee a new principle—an across-the-board cutback, determined on a diocesan or at least an area wide scale in relation to the religious teachers available."

U.S. real estate boom accused of doubletalk

By MSGR. GEORGE HIGGINS

The National Association of Real Estate Boards, representing 74,000 individual real estate agents and 4,155 local boards, recently adopted a major policy statement on government moves to end racial discrimination in the sale and rental of housing...

If it NAREB's "solemn belief" that the individual property owner must be allowed, under law, to retain the specific rights...

Earlier this year NAREB declared that it is permissible for a realtor to make a sale to a Negro or a member of any other minority in a white neighborhood...

Issues clergy directive on race demonstrations

BALTIMORE — Archbishop Lawrence J. Shehan has instructed priests of the Baltimore archdiocese not to take part in civil rights demonstrations unless they have obtained permission from him or Auxiliary Bishop T. Austin Murphy of Baltimore.

Archbishop Shehan said the directive "would be no harm" to the public good, but also injurious to the cause of racial justice...

In a July 9 letter to the clergy, the Archbishop said...

The philosophy (if you can call it that) which underlies these two statements of policy by the National Association of Real Estate Boards is almost a caricature of our society's laissez-faire individualism...

NINE PRIESTS were among the nearly 400 Negro and white demonstrators who picketed the amusement park on July 4...

On March 1, 1963, Archbishop Shehan issued a statement on racial justice in which he said that Catholics have "a special obligation to place themselves in the forefront of movements to remove injustices and discriminations."

WHAT OF THE DAY

Raps Negro extremists

By REV. JOHN DORAN

It is not hard to find oneself agreeing with the more moderate Negro leaders who oppose the August march on Washington...

welcomed by the hurricanes which the extremists are stirring up.

Let me give you an example of what I mean from a position which I have already taken...

that many children of the parish are waiting to enter the school. I would never allow myself to be forced to do an injustice to these waiting children...

Assuredly the Negro has often been denied justice, and he has every right to expect us to bestir ourselves to see that he gets it.

I suppose that it is hard for the Negroes who have suffered years of injustice to realize...

The more moderate elements in the integration fight, which incidentally are now being pushed out of the leadership, realize that trying to accomplish this...

Now let me hasten to add that, were I that Senator, I would favor most of the civil legislation involved...

This is on record from some ten years ago, a record which I would not regret being known to...

FOLLOWING the conference with the President's women's leaders met together and adopted a resolution pledging to work to create public understanding of our moral responsibilities...

AAUW is opened to Marian women

INDIANAPOLIS—Women graduates of Marian College are now eligible for membership in the American Association of University Women...

BOOKS OF THE HOUR

Prayers of all faiths

By D. B. THEALL, O.S.B.

A very fine recent anthology is 'God of a Hundred Names,' edited by Victor Gonzalez...

This book is described in a subtitle as 'A Collection of Prayers of All Faiths...'

Much of the material here comes from Judaism, particularly that branch of Jewish thought called Hasidism...

The prayers are arranged under such headings as 'Morning Prayer,' 'For Sufferers,' 'For Forgiveness of Sins,' etc.

A book such as this can be evaluated justly only by large batches of quotation; space permits but a few examples...

'The Jewish prayer, to be said (before the recital of the meditation, or any kind of honor, prayer, or any other devotion)...'

The Muslim prayer for the same purpose is: 'I thank Thee, Lord, for knowing me better than I know myself...'

From Hebrew sources, also, come special prayers to be said 'On seeing deformed persons,' 'On tasting any fruit for the first time in the season,' etc.

One gets this way a useful sense of how easy it would be, in a life of continual prayer, to sanctify all the occasions of life...

This is Catholicism

(Continued from page 7) he is priest not according to the Mosaic rite but according to the rite of Melchisedech—which indicated that the Messiah would be superior even to Abraham.

Q. Was David the only prophet of the Messiah? No, other Jews predicted additional facts concerning the future savior. Michael, for example, foretold that he would originate from Bethlehem (Mt. 1:1-2); Zachariah predicted that he would enter Jerusalem poor and humble and riding on an ass (Zc. 9:9-10); Daniel prophesied that he would be rejected and killed by his own countrymen (Dn. 9:27).

Q. Who was the greatest of the prophets concerning the Messiah? The greatest was Isaiah. He announced that the Messiah had been born of a virgin (Is. 7:14) and that he would suffer in atonement for the sins of his people (Is. 52:13-53:12).

Q. Did the Jews comprehend the messianic prophecies? Most of the Jews failed to understand these prophecies correctly. Misinterpreting the prophecies concerning the royal dignity of the Messiah, for example, the Jews anticipated a savior who would shatter Israel with riches, earthly glory, and material success, vanquishing her foes and lifting her to the pinnacle of world domination. On the other hand, the dire predictions concerning the rejection, sufferings, and death of the Messiah, since they cast a cloud over these bright hopes of worldly prosperity, were simply neglected by the majority of Jews, and all but forgotten.

Q. Did the Jews reverence the prophets and treat them with kindness? Because they so sharply denounced the sins of Israel and warned that God's punishments would fall upon the nation, the Hebrew prophets were generally not popular and were frequently persecuted and sometimes put to death.

Q. Were these prophecies fulfilled? Yes. Often in her history Israel was conquered and devastated by enemy nations. After 65 B.C. she lost her independence and became part of the Roman Empire.

Q. Who was the last of the prophets to appear in Israel before the Messiah? The last was John, the son of Zachary, born about 6 B.C.

John and asked to be baptized. After the ceremony was over, the man was emerging from the water, the heavens opened and a voice informed John that this man was the Messiah (Mt. 3:13-17, Jn. 1:32-34).

Q. What was the name of this man? His name was Jesus of Nazareth.

'NEW FACT OF OUR TIME'

World Council speakers praise unity movement

MONTREAL — Two Protestant theologians told a major World Council of Churches meeting here that the ecumenical movement has been the most important development of the century on the international religious scene.

Dr. Albert C. Outler, professor at the Perkins School of Theology of Southern Methodist University, Dallas, Tex., said the last half-century has "witnessed a metamorphosis in the texture and quality of relations between divided Christians."

Gathered on the campus of McGill University here for the meeting of the Faith and Order Commission are representatives of such geographically and theologically diverse Christian groups as the historic Greek Orthodox Churches of the ancient East, the Salvation Army, and a new ly autonomous churches in Asia, Africa and Latin America.

Nature of Church seen major Montreal topic

SAN FRANCISCO—The nature of the Church, perhaps the most fundamental issue dividing Catholics and Protestants, will be a major topic of discussion during a World Council of Churches conference now in progress in Montreal.

Interviewed as an expert for the council's second session which begins in September at the University of San Francisco, Father Diekmann said it is becoming clear that the "ecclesial (church) as used in the New Testament has a Eucharistic dimension—the coming together of the people for the breaking of bread, for the Lord's Supper, to give worship together."

"There is a growing conviction among Catholics and Protestants that the point of misunderstanding now and of ultimate union in the future lies in ecclesiology—the nature of the Church," declared Father Diekmann of St. John's Abbey, Collegeville, Minn. And, he noted, the July 12 to 26 meeting of the Faith and Order Commission of the World Council of Churches, being held in Montreal, will continue discussions on the nature of the church begun at its most recent meeting in Lund, Sweden, in May.

At the same time that Protestants are showing renewed sacramental interest, Father Diekmann said, in the Catholic Church there is a return to the Scriptures insofar as they are the life-giving Word of God.

Franciscans 'hit books' on vacation

OLDENBURG, Ind.—"Hitting the books" might be an apt description for the activity of several hundred Sisters of St. Francis who are attending summer classes at the motherhouse here, at Marian College, Indianapolis, and a score of other colleges and universities around the country. One of the most popular courses at the motherhouse is "Current Trends in Catechesis," taught by Sister Rose Carmel, who recently earned her master's degree in religious education at the Catholic University of America.

ON OLDENBURG CAMPUS—"Current Trends in Catechesis" received the attention of many Franciscan Sisters this summer at the Oldenburg motherhouse. Instructor of the popular course is Sister Rose Carmel, shown above, who recently received a master's degree in religious education from the Catholic University of America.

"NEW MATH" concepts and the impact on the elementary school curriculum is being studied by 137 Sisters on both the Oldenburg and Marian College campuses. Conducting two sessions at Oldenburg are Sister Therese de Lourdes and Sister Mary Ellen, assisted by six problem-session leaders.

At Marian, the same material is being presented by Sister Florence Marie and three problem-session leaders. A total of 29 courses are being offered at the two campuses, enrolling 264 Franciscan nuns. Sixty-eight Sisters are taking advanced degree or special programs at 21 other institutions. Eleven grants were received for study in Asian culture, language, science and mathematics.

The special-events calendar at the motherhouse has included lectures, book reviews and educational films. Among the visiting lecturers were: Father James E. Shappelle, assistant superintendent of schools in the Cincinnati Archdiocese; Sister Clare Marie and Sister Mary Bernard, both of the Marian Col-

$84,970,000 in TAXES... and it didn't hurt a bit! Commercial electric utilities have advertised and publicized that they are the biggest taxpayers in Indiana. They state that this is "a mighty big bite to chew," but generously add that it's "easier to swallow" because of all the wonderful benefits that this "bite" will provide for Hoosiers. The fact is that the "bite" didn't hurt because the electric utilities were not "bitten." In the testimony of Secretary of Treasury Douglas Dillon: "neither the utilities nor their stockholders bear the burden of the tax." According to law, the electric monopolies can add taxes into their cost of operation. These taxes help determine the rates that the utilities are allowed to charge you. Actually, utility rate payers pay these taxes. The utilities merely pass the tax money they collect from their consumers on to the government.
